

International Headlines

Nebras acquires 35.5% stake in Indonesian power firm

Nebras Power based in Qatar, announced that it has completed the acquisition of a 35.5 percent stake in Indonesian utility firm PT Paiton Energy through its wholly owned subsidiary Nebras Power Netherland BV.

In a statement issued by Nebras the acquisition was completed on December 22. PT Paiton Energy owns a 2,045 megawatt (MW) thermal power plant in East Java, which is the first and largest Independent Power Producer (IPP) in Indonesia, representing 4 percent of the country's total installed generation capacity. (Read More...) (The Peninsula)

Fitness app HealthifyMe raises $1 million from Dubai-based investor

Mobile-based health and fitness app HealthifyMe that has crossed one million downloads on Google PlayStore has raised $1 million (Rs 6.7 crores) from Dubai-based investor Neelesh Bhatnagar whose company NB Ventures has been actively investing in Indian startups.

The app had earlier received $6 million from IDG, Inventus and Blume Ventures. The fresh funding will be used to hire top leadership and invest in product and technology innovation.

(Read More...) (Knowstartup)

Siemens Healthineers partners with Middle Eastern investors to establish first healthcare establishment in UAE

Global medical technology business, Siemens Healthineers, has partnered with Middle Eastern investors to establish its first entity in the UAE. The business has joined forces with Easa Saleh Al Gurg Group, a multidivisional conglomerate based in Dubai, and Electro Mechanical Co.LLC, an electrical product and services company based in Abu Dhabi, to set up Siemens Healthineers' inaugural UAE establishment. Siemens Healthineers offers medical imaging, laboratory diagnostics and advanced medical services, consulting and healthcare IT services in the region. The partnership comes at a time when the UAE government is encouraging cross-sectoral collaboration to advance its rapidly growing infrastructure and attract global investment. (Read More...) (Zawya)

Jay Z, Saudi royals & others invest $105 million in private jet startup JetSmarter

Private jet startup JetSmarter, which includes Las Vegas among the cities it serves, said it had raised $105 million in financing from a range of investors including the Saudi Royal Family and rapper and businessman Jay Z.

JetSmarter said it raised the fresh funding at a $1.5 billion valuation, making it one of the highest-valued startups in the sector of all-you-can-fly services, an emerging cohort of startups that offer scheduled trips on private airplanes for those who can afford the membership fee.

(Read More...) (Review Journal)

McDonald's Malaysia and Singapore sold to Saudi group

McDonald's, the world's largest fast-food chain, has sold its Malaysia and Singapore franchise license to Reza Food Services, a unit of Saudi conglomerate Reza Investment Company, which already holds a developmental license for the chain for the western and southern regions of Saudi Arabia.

Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed in a statement by McDonald's Malaysia. However, press reports had valued the deal at around $400 million for 20-year franchise rights.

(Read More...) (Nikkei Asian Review)

Feature Story

Qatar Airways completes acquisition of 10% of LATAM Group

Chile's LATAM Airlines (LAN.SN), Latin America's largest commercial carrier, said Qatar Airways has completed its acquisition of 10 percent of the company, in a transaction worth $608.4 million.

LATAM announced in mid-July an agreement in which Qatar would buy 10 percent of the company via the issuance of new shares, with a payment of $10 per share. In the final deal, Qatar purchased 60.8 million LATAM shares, the company said.

"The entrance of Qatar into the ownership (of LATAM) is an opportunity to develop a long-term relationship and explore new opportunities for connectivity with Asia and the Middle East," LATAM said in a statement.

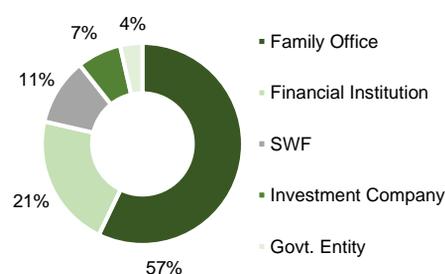

The Qatar deal forced the Chilean Cueto family and the Brazilian Amaro family to modify the ownership structure of LATAM in September so as not to dilute their participation. The company, founded in 2012 through a tie-up between Chile's LAN and Brazil's TAM, has reported significant losses in recent years amid a recession in Brazil. (Read More...) (Reuters)

Greenstone Market Reach (December 2016) Investor Meetings by Nationality

Roadshows	3
Investor Meetings Held	28

Investor Meetings by Investor Type

Contact Us

Boulevard Plaza Tower II, 27th Floor
Downtown Dubai
P.O. Box 73994
Dubai, United Arab Emirates
T: +971 (4) 382 7600
www.gsequity.com